

THREE PLANS TO OPERATE OR BUY INDUCTIVE UNIT ARE CONSIDERED

Three plans for operation or purchase were submitted for the consideration of the creditors and shareholders of the Inductive Equipment Corporation, at a meeting attended by more than 100 Tuesday night at the plant's offices at Quarry park. No decision was reached on either plan. Another meeting will be held soon.

John W. Hennessey, York, trustee for the receivership, was in charge of the meeting, with his attorney, Horace E. Smith of York.

The plan submitted by the trustee was presented and James D. Cleland, president of the Fidelity Electric company, Lancaster, which made an offer to take over the plant, gave a summary of the background and activities of his company.

Lancaster Offer

The Lancaster firm's plan was as follows: To guarantee a minimum gross income of $20,000 per year to Inductive Equipment Corporation for a period of at least three years, from which minimum gross income the present outstanding first mortgage bonds will be serviced; to issue shares of preferred stock to general creditors in the full amount of their respective claims, with the assurance that a minimum bid of 25 percent will be maintained on such issue for a period of one year from date of approval by the district court; to create a new issue of common stock to be distributed on the basis of 10 percent to present existing common shareholders in lieu of their present shares and 90 percent to the Fidelity Electric company.

SHOE SALESMAN TAKES OWN LIFE WITH REVOLVER

Irvin Alvin Reber, 66, New Oxford R. 1, was found dead at his home Tuesday evening at 5:50 o'clock. Dr. C. G. Crist, county coroner, said the death was suicide.

According to the coroner, Mr. Reber, a field man for the Hanover shoe company, spent most of Tuesday on the third floor of his home. He was scheduled to leave for Detroit Tuesday evening on a business trip. A few minutes before the suicide occurred a grandson went to the room where Mr. Reber was staying to tell him that he had 55 minutes to make the train for Detroit. Doctor Crist said the grandson had come down from the third floor only a few moments when the report of a pistol was heard and investigation disclosed Mr. Reber had shot himself through the head with a .45 caliber pistol.

Local Senator Refuses Boost In Expenses; Returns $300

Senator Donald P. McPherson, Jr., Gettysburg, representing the Adams-Franklin counties in the state senate, has returned an extra $300 "expense" check to the state treasurer because, he said, "I did not feel that I should accept it."

The local senator said he intends to return other expense checks in excess of the $100 monthly payment until the close of his term.

Members of the state legislature received $900 in what is termed unaccountable expense money for the first six months of this year. This included $300 which the legislators voted themselves some time ago. It included an additional $50 for monthly expenses over their regular $100.

Senator McPherson said: "I voted against the income tax and the expense account increase. I was elected to an office paying a certain amount and I can't see taking more than that."

When Senator McPherson returns other additional expense moneys it will total $1,200 for the two-year period that he will have refused to accept on the theory that he was elected on a stipulated salary and he opposed an increase.

LUTHERANS OF FAIRFIELD TO PICNIC AUG. 18

The Fairfield Lutheran church will hold its annual picnic at the South Mountain fairgrounds Saturday, August 18. Plans have been completed for a revival of this annual affair, formerly sponsored by the Sunday school. Supper will be served cafeteria style at 5:30 o'clock. The supper committee will make preparations on the basis of the number of "super stubs." Girl With Hiccups Better; Goes Home

Fifteen-year-old Hazel Rosenberry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Rosenberry, 116 West High street, returned to her home Tuesday evening from the Warner hospital — but she is still hiccuping.

The young girl started to hiccup July 20 and was a patient at the hospital until July 29, until the spasms halted. She resumed hiccuping August 2 and was returned to the hospital. The hiccups are now occurring only periodically, however, and she was returned to her home.

Clear $1,855 For Community Building

The building fund of the Greenmount Fire company is richer by $1,885.95 as a result of the recent festival held there. Company officials said today. The affair grossed $3,202.08 and expenses amounted to $1,316.13.

The carnival profits go into the building fund and are expected to make it possible to have the Greenmount fire company's new community hall under roof before winter.

TIMES BUILDS ADDITION FOR ROTARY PRESS

Excavations for the $30,000 addition to the printing plant of the Times and News Publishing company have been completed and workmen have begun work on the foundations for the new two-story and basement structure.

The addition will house a new Duplex rotary press which will replace the present flat-bed press which has been in use for more than 40 years. The expansion of press and composing room facilities is necessary because of the increased circulation of The Gettysburg Times and the need for more modern equipment.

The new building will be 34 x 75 feet of brick, steel and concrete construction.

The basement will house the new press room, stereotyping and newsboy rooms. The first floor will embrace an expansion of the present composing room and the second floor will include the enlargement of the present bindery.

A new rotary press became almost a "must" to expedite the printing of the daily Times. The present outmoded flat-bed press is too slow to turn out the daily Times to insure early delivery to a steadily expanding circulation area. A larger and faster press is necessary. The new press will be a 16-page high-speed machine.

It is hoped that the new building and machinery will be completed and in operation by the first of the year.

ISSUE SCHOOL BUS SCHEDULE OF INSPECTIONS

Notices were sent today to all school bus drivers and owners by County Superintendent of Schools J. Floyd Slaybaugh giving schedules for school bus inspections.

The inspection affects all bus owners and drivers not holding PUC licenses who are employed by school boards to transport pupils.

The bus inspections will be held August 15 at the Biglerville high school grounds; August 16 at the state police substation on the Fairfield road and August 17 at the New Oxford high school grounds. "The state police are requesting that all bus drivers have their buses clean and in good repair," the notices said. "All buses should be equipped with chains, tools, spare tire, flares, flags, fire extinguisher and other required equipment."

No Waivers This Year

"No waivers will be permitted this year. Bus drivers must report at the inspection center to which they are assigned, unless permission is secured from Sgt. Joseph E. Temple, state police, for a change in location. Any further information may be obtained from the state police, telephone 221."

Those notified to report at the

10-Year War Expectable Says Congressman Mahon, Of Texas

Washington, Aug. 8 (AP)—A congressional military expert told the House today "there is only a minimum hope" that the United States can avert an all-out war that might last ten years.

Opening debate on a $56,000,000 military appropriation bill, Rep. Mahon (D-Tex.) cautioned against "complacency" and sounded this warning:

"In my judgment, there is only a minimum hope that our difficulties with Russia can and will be resolved short of war. Trends from cold to hot war, from little wars to big wars, do not have a tendency to reverse themselves short of an all-out explosion.

"We are not so blind that we fail to realize that an all-out shooting war might last for a decade and might very well destroy much of civilization as we know it on this planet.

"One cannot but shudder at the contemplation of the death and misery that would be incident to a

A. R. POWELL, 52, DIES SUDDENLY AT HOME TODAY

August Raymond Powell, 52, Gettysburg R. 4, an automobile salesman, was found dead in bed at his Mt. Pleasant township home this morning by his wife. Dr. C. G. Crist, Adams county coroner, placed the time of death at about 5 o'clock and said the cause was coronary occlusion. Mr. Powell had suffered from a heart condition for several years.

Mr. Powell, a native of Wisconsin, was a member of the Albert J. Lentz post No. 202 of the American Legion. He served during World War I as a private in the Tank Corps, Regular Army Reserves. He enlisted December 31, 1914, and was discharged in June of 1920.

MORE EXHIBITS ARE SOUGHT FOR SOUTH MT. FAIR

The executive committee of the South Mountain Fair association, at a meeting Tuesday evening at the fairgrounds, issued an appeal for more exhibits and more workers for the annual display of the county agricultural products.

Each year the fair has increased the number of exhibits but this year's officials are making a special effort to interest everyone in placing something of their own production on display.

Increased prize money, and increased divisions of entries make it possible for everyone to take part. Arnold E. Orner, president of the fair association, said.

"Everyone in the county has produced something during the year that should be on display," Orner said. "It may be a garden vegetable, it may be a jar of canned foods, it may be needlework, or a painting. We feel that we have sufficient divisions now to provide an opportunity for all counties to compete on an equal basis. We hope increased prize money will lead to more people placing more exhibits in the various divisions of the fair."

"Clean-up Festival"

Roy H. Heckenluber was named chairman of the "labor pool" and any person in the county who wishes to donate a few hours of work for the fair is asked to contact him. "There are a thousand things to be done at the fair, and we feel that a lot of people can have a lot of fun helping to do the work," Heckenluber said.

As a test of the willingness of countians to join in the work of the fair, the association voted to have a "clean-up festival" Wednesday.

EXCHANGE CLUB FAMILY PICNIC HELD TUESDAY

The Exchange club beat the weatherman to the punch Tuesday evening, and completed most of its family picnic program at Woodlawn park before the rain came. Originally scheduled for Caledonia, the picnic was shifted to Woodlawn because of the threatening skies.

The affair was in charge of the wives of members. It was the second family picnic this year, the previous one held at Caledonia state park, having been in charge of the men. Mrs. Irvin Weigandt was general chairman for Tuesday evening's affair, and Mrs. Glenn Guise was in charge of the games.

A number of games and contests were held prior to the supper hour, both for the men and women and for the children. The men also played softball.

Get Softball Tickets

Picnic tables were set up in the grove, fires built in several fireplaces and "hot dogs" roasted. The food, instead of being prepared by a caterer, was furnished by the women, and was served in old-fashioned picnic style. The supper was concluded just before the rain.

Tickets were distributed for the old-timers' softball game Thursday evening between the Lions and Exchange clubs at the Recreation park, for which donations will be received. The winner of this game will play the Rotary club in the second game of the evening. Proceeds will go to the Exchange club project for tennis courts at the Recreation park.

Reports were given on ticket sales for the Roger Brothers circus sponsored by the Exchange club for the benefit of the tennis fund. The circus will be held Friday afternoon and evening, August 17.

DEATH CAR'S DRIVER FACES TRAFFIC COUNT

State police said today they plan to bring a charge of failing to stop at a stop sign against Albert L. Candemo, 43, of West Aliquippa, who was the driver Tuesday of an automobile involved in a fatal accident at York Springs.

Candemo is a patient at the Warner hospital with a fractured pelvis suffered in the accident. His mother, Mrs. Clara Candemo, 69, was fatally injured when the Candemo car was struck by a tractor-trailer truck, loaded with hay, at the York Springs intersection.

Police said the charge, which will be placed before a York Springs justice, is the only one that will be brought prior to an inquest by the coroner into the fatal accident. At that time the district attorney and coroner will decide whether to have involuntary manslaughter charges brought, depending upon the findings of the coroner's jury.

Carl Dean Badly Hurt

Carl Dean, 51, New Oxford R. 2, driver of the truck, who was admitted to the hospital in a critical condition, was said to show "slight improvement" today, but doctors said his condition was still serious. He suffered fractures of both legs, and one leg was so badly cut that it may be necessary to amputate it, hospital physicians said.

Mrs. Isabell Nace, sister of Albert Candemo, was reported, as was her brother, "doing fine" at the hospital. She sustained a fractured left arm and left leg. Her son, Carl Nace, 15, was treated for minor cuts and bruises.

The body of Mrs. Candemo, wife of Gregory Candemo, West Aliquippa, was shipped there Tuesday night for interment.

After the truck struck the car, the two continued across the intersection and smashed against the house of Joseph Heisey.

LIGHT RAIN WELCOMED

Farmers and gardeners welcomed Tuesday night's showers that totaled 0.23 inches in Gettysburg but hoped for more rain to come to the relief of parched crops.

Tokyo, Aug. 8 (AP)—Red radios remained silent tonight on the United Nations demand for fresh guarantees of neutrality at the site of Korean armistice talks.

Allied negotiators returned to Korea during the day, ready to resume cease-fire talks if and when Communist commanders pledged the Kaesong neutral zone will be kept inviolable.

But neither the Peiping nor Pyongyang radios mentioned tonight the new demand of Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway, U.N. commander, first broadcast at 1:30 p.m. Tuesday (10:30 p.m., Monday, EST).

Instead—32 hours later—the Chinese Red radio at Peiping featured a report the Red commanders still were waiting for Ridgway's reply to a Communist message dispatched Monday morning.

Reds Conceal Facts

The Peiping broadcast said the letter, entrusted to an American liaison officer, contained assurances from North Korean Gen. Kim Il Sung and Gen. Peng Teh-huai that the Kaesong neutrality pledge would be observed.

This apparently was the Red message which Ridgway acknowledged Tuesday in his demand for a new Red pledge they would really keep their word.

The monitoring agency in Tokyo said the Red radio broadcast the story in English, Chinese and Japanese. It was featured as a top news item, said to have been written by a Red correspondent at Kaesong.

The Peiping broadcasts said the Chinese and North Korean cease-fire delegation waited at Kaesong Tuesday for the U.N. negotiators, "but the latter failed to arrive."

Await Red Answer

Vice Adm. C. Turner Joy led the four American delegates back to the United Nations advance headquarters from top secret conferences with the U.N. commander in Tokyo. On his arrival in Korea, Joy said: "I have no idea when the talks will be resumed. I will wait until the Communists answer General Ridgway's last message."

Brig. Gen. William P. Nuckolls, delegation spokesman, said the order to resume the interrupted negotiations would have to come from General Ridgway, even if Red leaders accept his terms.

The U.N. commander broke off talks after a company of armed Reds marched through the neutral zone. Top Red commanders said it was an accident.

Want New Assurances

In his Tuesday message Ridgway demanded that the Communists promise not to allow any more of their armed soldiers to enter the neutral area. This zone extends in a five-mile radius from the Kaesong site of armistice negotiations.

Up to the time U.N. negotiators returned to their advance camp, the Red radios in Peiping and Pyongyang had not mentioned the Ridgway message.

Instead, they accused American troops of violating the neutral zone. Nuckolls said North Korean Lt. Gen. Nam Il, chief Red delegate, had made such a charge in armistice negotiations. Nuckolls said liaison officers discussed the charge and it was subsequently investigated.

He said he did not know the result of the investigation.

Reds Continue Lies

Red radios accused U.N. troops of violating the neutral zone July 16 by attacks on Panmunchon, which they said was in the neutrality area. Allied maps show town is six miles east of Kaesong, outside the zone.

Communist broadcasts also protested U.N. war planes flew over the zone and warships bombarded Red "positions daily just beyond the neutral zone."

The broadcasts said U.N. action in breaking off negotiations was "an aggravation of a trifle" and proved the Communist contention Americans "deliberately intend to stall the talks."

The return of American cease-fire negotiators to Korea was an indication of conditional Allied readiness to resume cease-fire discussions.

They flew from Tokyo to Seoul's Kimpo air field in three hours, arriving shortly after noon. From there they went by helicopter to U.N. advance headquarters, arriving at 12:55 p.m. (9:55 p.m., Tuesday, EST).

Special Poems On WGET This Evening

The following poems will be read on the "Leaves of Poetry" program tonight from 8:30 to 9 over WGET: "In The Gloaming," Meta Orred; "If I Should Die Tonight," Arabella Eugenia Smith; "Somebody's Mother," Mary Dow Brine; "The Cares of Majesty," William Shakespeare; "Beautiful Hands," Ellen M. H. Gates; "Seen Things," Eugene Field; "A Lost Child," Adelaide Anne Procter, and "Just For Today" by Samuel Wilberforce.

SENATE OKAYS REFERENDUM

Harrisburg, Aug. 8 (AP)—A Senate committee has approved—for the second time—a bill calling for a statewide referendum on whether the people want to revise Pennsylvania's 77-year-old constitution.

The measure was approved by the Senate committee on constitutional changes and federal relations on March 13. It was re-referred to the committee for further consideration on March 26.

Sen. John M. Walker, Republican floor leader, said the intention at that time was to consolidate the bill with another introduced by Walker calling for a constitutional convention next January.

However, a new bill fixing the referendum and election of delegates to the prospective convention both for the November 6 election was introduced later in both Houses. The Senate committee, headed by Sen. Donald P. McPherson (R-Adams) decided, however, on reapproving the referendum bill rather than the consolidated referendum-convention measure, drafted by the Attorney General's office.

The referendum would be held on November 6 in connection with the municipal elections. The state elections bureau said there is still time to get the question on the ballot.

There will be no meeting of the Auxiliary of the Fish and Game association this month but there will be one in September. The date and time will be announced later.

Harold Smith, Phillipsburg, N. J., has concluded a visit with his father, Charles E. Smith, Baltimore street.

The Junior circle of the Presbyterian church will meet at the home of the leader, Mrs. Edgar K. Markley, East Broadway, Friday evening.

Memorial Service Held Here Sunday

At the close of the morning worship service in the memorial Evangelical United Brethren church on Sunday morning, a special memorial service was held in memory of William Brimer.

Mr. Brimer, a resident of the Adams county home for 33 years, was an active member of the Memorial Evangelical United Brethren church for 28 years. A son of the late Charles and Elizabeth Brimer, William was born in 1889 and early became affiliated with the United Brethren church at Mt. Hope.

The memorial service opened with the congregational singing of the hymn "Asleep in Jesus, Blessed Sleep." Robert Fry, teacher of the Men's Bible class, read the obituary. The pastor spoke briefly concerning the spiritual life of Mr. Brimer during his pastorate in Gettysburg. The service was closed by a solo, "Safe in the Arms of Jesus," sung by Miss Nancy Sanders.

Flowers placed in the church in Mr. Brimer's memory were taken to the cemetery after the service. A committee was appointed to study the possibility of placing in the church a memorial to Mr. Brimer.

West Point, N. Y., Aug. 8 (AP)—Extenuating circumstances may clear some of the 80 military academy cadets admitting cribbing, West Point officials say, but the exact status of the other 10 cadets involved still is not clear.

Possibility that fewer cadets would be dismissed than the 90 originally accused of cheating became clear yesterday as Senate investigators in Washington decided to keep hands off the case, at least for the present.

Col. James B. Leer, the academy's public information officer, said that the screening board now in session might clear some of the 80 admitting cribbing. It was explained that the screening board might find new explanations or extenuating circumstances that will acquit the cadets, although they admitted their guilt to an original special board that recommended the dismissals.

Anyone who wishes may join in the "festival" by reporting at the fairgrounds at that time to help clean out the various buildings and prepare the grounds for the annual fair.

Charles Fidler, chairman of the draft horses division, reported Tuesday night that "despite the fact that no one apparently uses horses on the farm anymore, we will have a full display of draft horses, and all of them are beautiful creatures."

The executive committee voted to pay ten percent of the cost of advertising placed by exhibitors during the fair period, provided the exhibitors mention the location and dates of the fair in their advertisements.

Approval was given to a 50 cent admission charge to the grandstand for the horse show on Saturday, September 8. The money will be used to improve the facilities for the horse show. A small charge will also be made for the program for the horse show. Plans were made for construction of a permanent stand for the judges and announcer at the horse show arena. The show will be held during the morning and afternoon of September 8. Permission was also granted for the construction of a sign advertising the show at the fairground entrance.

The entrance to the parking area will be graded and improved and a ticket stand, providing for three cars to stop at one time, will be constructed. Those entering the fairgrounds will obtain their tickets before they drive their cars into the parking lot, and will thus be able to go freely to and from their cars once they have entered the lot.

THREE PLANS TO

pany; to least the plant at a monthly rental until the final reorganization.

Mr. Cleland submitted an alternate plan to purchase which involved a cash offer of approximately $210,000, to be divided among the various interests.

Gaston Prepares Plan

John R. Gaston, former president and general manager of the company, through Earl V. Compton of the law firm of Compton and Handler, Harrisburg, presented a tentative plan not completely worked out as yet, the principal features of which will give the general creditors an option of taking 30 percent in cash or 60 percent in preferred stock. The plan, he said, was contingent upon acquisition of 85 percent of the present stock of the corporation, a primary factor of which would be the successful sale of new preferred stock to raise $250,000 in new capital. There was no intimation that any attempt would be made to raise the $250,000 locally.

The two plans submitted by Cleland and the Gaston plan all recognized the status of the bondholders by reason of their mortgage on the building of the Inductive Equipment corporation.

The trustee urged both Cleland and Gaston to complete the additional formalities so that something definite could be presented within the next 15 to 30 days, and it was indicated that there will be one more meeting to finally consider the plans.

INDIANS GAIN HALF GAME ON LOOP CHAMPS

By RALPH RODEN
(Associated Press Sports Writer)
The Cleveland Indians, favorites many quarters to end the two-year reign of the New York Yankees American league champions, are nearing the make-or-break phase of the pennant race.

Following their current brief home stand, the Indians embark on a road trip and then return on August 20 for an 18-game series in which they will probably decide their fate.

Mike Garcia, husky righthander, checked the Indians to within a half game of the Yankees last night when he turned back the St. Louis Browns, 5-1, on a neat four-hitter. The Indians were idle in other American league games the third day of the season.

Philadelphia Athletics and Chicago White Sox nipped the Detroit Tigers, 2-1, in 13 innings. The Red Sox now trail by 4½ games the White Sox by 6½.

Phils Take Pair
In the National league, the Philadelphia Phillies took a two-night doubleheader from the Boston Braves, 3-1, and 1-0 in 15 innings. The Chicago Cubs downed the Cincinnati Reds, 4-1, and the St. Louis Cardinals swamped the Pittsburgh Pirates, 16-7. The New York Giants and Brooklyn Dodgers were rained out.

Garcia blanked the Browns on two hits until the ninth when he lost his shutout. Garcia helped his own cause with a three-run homer in the sixth. The victory is his 15th, the most he has ever won in the majors.

The A's came from behind to beat the Red Sox. They scored twice in the sixth on triples by Elmer Valo, Hank Majeski and a single by Wally Pides to take a 5-4 lead. The A's led single runs in the eighth and ninth to clinch it. Bob Hooper went a distance for the winners. Bobby Berd drove in all of Boston's runs in a pair of doubles.

15th for Roberts
Robin Roberts posted his 15th victory for the Phils in the opener against Boston. He allowed the raves five hits, Dick Sisler singled home Richie Ashburn from second use with two out with the Phils' winning run in the 15th inning of the nightcap. Russ Meyer hurled the first ten innings for the Phils and then Heinzelman the final five. Johnny Sain, Bob Chipman and Warren Spahn divided the Boston pitching with Spahn the loser.

The Cards pounded six Pirate pitchers for 21 hits with Peanuts Lowrey leading the attack with five victories. The Cards scored seven runs in the first inning and added five more in the third to sew it up.

Interstate League

(By The Associated Press)
Timely hitting by shortstop Tom Lind and first baseman Buck Riddle and the nifty clutch pitching of Andy Bush gave the Hagerstown Braves a 9 to 2 victory over the Wilmington Blue Rocks last night.

Lind and Riddle each drove across five runs, the former with a pair of triples and his mate with three singles. The Braves collected 12 hits in all. The veteran Bush was frequently in trouble, especially in the early innings, but he came through superbly in the pinches. It was Hagerstown's 12th win in 18 games in the last year's Interstate league champions.

The Allentown Cardinals, four times behind the loop-leading Braves, continued their winning ways, massing 12 runs in the ninth inning to smother the Harrisburg Senators 18 to 9.

The Cards got only six hits in their rampaging finale, but were easily helped by Harrisburg pitchers, who generously contributed grid walks. Howard Rodemeyer, third of five Senator hurlers, was checked for three hits and four runs without retiring a batter. Relief pitcher Clark, second of three Allentown moundsmen, was credited with the victory. Rain washed out scheduled games between Lancaster and Vinbury and York and Salisbury.

Winner of the tilt between the Lions and Exchanges will play the Rotarians. The games are for the benefit of the Exchange club's project to build tennis courts at the Recreation park.

CUT PROSPECT LIST TO 11 MEN

By JOE REICHLER
New York, Aug. 8 (AP)—Four top-ranking generals head the list of 11 mystery candidates still under the club owners' consideration for the $65,000-per-year job as commissioner of baseball, the Associated Press learned today.

High on the list of candidates, although not necessarily available, are Generals Dwight D. Eisenhower, Douglas A. McArthur, Maxwell D. Taylor and Hoyt S. Vandenberg. Ford C. Frick, president of the National league, and Warren Giles, president of the Cincinnati Reds, are the only baseball men still on the pared down list—from 40 to 11.

Some Big Names Out
The other five candidates are important industrialists whose identities cannot be divulged at present. Not one is in politics.

Businessman James A. Farley and George Trautman, head of the minor leagues, rated among the "big five" in the fore of the speculation, were among the 29 eliminated at yesterday's day-long meeting of the 16 big league executives at the Waldorf-Astoria hotel.

Chief Justice Fred M. Vinson and FBI Chief J. Edgar Hoover "regretfully" declined to have their names placed for nomination.

Others prominent in the field of politics and business, whose names were believed to be high on the list of prospects, were scratched yesterday.

One of the 11 may be named the new commissioner to succeed A. B. (Happy) Chandler when the owners meet again August 21 in New York. Since Chandler's resignation July 15, baseball has been governed by the executive council.

SOFTBALL TILT TO BE TONIGHT

The Moose and Glenn L. Bream teams will try again this evening at 8 o'clock on the Recreation park to decide which of the squads will take part in the final playoffs for the championship of the community softball league.

Both squads were present Tuesday night at the Recreation park for the game that should have decided which will enter the finals, but rain came at the end of the second inning and washed out the attempt. The Moose were leading 2 to 0 at that time. Each of the teams has won one game of a three game series.

Studying leaden skies today, league officials noted that if the weather prevents tonight's attempt to play the third game in the series, the two teams will hold the game on Friday night.

Sports Roundup

By GAYLE TALBOT
New York, Aug. 8 (AP)—One is forced to the reluctant conclusion after a long, profitless day among the flora of the Waldorf-Astoria that baseball's club owners are too frightened at this time to pick themselves another commissioner.

They act like a group of gentlemen who realize that, if they are not extremely careful, they will wake up one of these mornings and find that they have a new boss. They don't even like to think about it, much less talk about it. They are a lot of nervous Nellies, and one is not disposed to blame them too much after what they've gone through.

To Meet Soon Again
They plan to meet here again in two weeks and this observer is willing to make a modest wager that they leave town again wearing perplexed expressions and still without a commissioner. After all, they haven't had one for a month now, and isn't baseball getting along pretty good in the emergency?

Yesterday's long session reduced the list of candidates to a golden 11, which is a great many commissioners, though not as many as the 37 they started the day with. At that rate of progress the next meeting should knock the list down to, say, three or four, and after that the going will get really sticky.

A fairly dark horse still in the running is George Trautman, the current czar of the minor leagues. The hunch here is that he will in time wind up with the job. The owners quite possibly will "sound out" a big name or two before they are through, but the feeling persists that they will in the end agree on a baseball man and keep all that dough in the family. It's a revolutionary idea, of course, but they have tried about everything else.

Chicago, Aug. 8 (AP)—A bonanza of $12,500 for the winner has lured one of golf's greatest fields, headed by Ben Hogan, to Promoter George S. May's so-called "World" championships starting tomorrow at Tam O'Shanter.

A group of 64 pros, including all the leading money winners plus 10 foreign entries, aim for the game's biggest jackpot. Second place is worth $5,000, third, $3,000 and the prize list which totals $50,000 scales down to $200 for 64th.

Playing along with the 64 pros for the "World" title will be 10 amateurs topped by Frank Stranahan. This makes a total men's field of 74.

Annual rainfall in most of Saudi Arabia amounts only to about three inches.

BOROUGH BONDS ARE PAID, WITH SMALL BALANCE

The treasurer's report, given at a meeting of the town council Monday evening in the fire hall, showed a balance in the general account of $11,487 and that the bonded debt was entirely paid off with a $49.65 balance in the bond account. This account was ordered closed and the balance transferred to the general account.

Meter receipts for July amounted to $261.15. The balance due on meters is $755. Tax collected in July was $230. Two requests for surfacing alleys were received, one from Howard Tull, who appeared in person, and another by letter from Dr. James H. Allison. Burgess Thornton Rogers said that the alleys were next on the program for repair and improvement after the work on DePaul street is completed.

The burgess announced that he had made a complete survey of the town by going over all of the streets and alleys. He outlined a general program of repair, cleanup and improvement.

A letter was read from Robert Gilchrist Ellis Kelly, of England, asking for employment for three months in exchange for $200 transportation from England to America. He said he was Scotch, a schoolmaster and an ex-flying officer of World War II, and was 29 years old.

Uncle Lived Here
He said he knew a great deal about Emmitsburg and the surrounding district from an uncle, Peter Ellis, who spent some time in the town when it was composed of very few houses. His uncle, he said, spent about 18 years in America as an engineer, and counted the people of Emmitsburg the friendliest people in the states, and Emmitsburg a "hidden gem."

The burgess and commissioners instructed the clerk to acknowledge the letter and tell Mr. Kelly that the town was too small to offer him the employment he sought. Another letter was from Lee E. Reid, of Lancaster, Ohio, who wrote that he had recently passed through Emmitsburg, and asked for pictures of places of interest. These were sent.

Bills received and ordered paid were: $4.50 hauling, $6.85 new sythe, $202.69 paint and labor for painting.

The chief of police's report was received in person and $28.50 received from fines was turned over to the council. The chief asked for power to arrest and fine those who persisted in loitering in groups and making disturbances on the streets late at night. He was informed that such an ordinance was in effect. The new chief was complimented by the council for his services.

To Repair Alleys
Commissioner Charles Fuss, a newcomer to the board, replacing Raymond Baker, took an active part in the meeting. He called attention to the condition of the alleys in the rear of the Emmitsburg recreation center leading from the rear of the

PENMAR LEAGUE PLANS ALL-STAR TILT AUGUST 22

Plans for an All-Star game August 22 were outlined Tuesday evening at a meeting of the Pen-Mar baseball league held in the VFW home at Littlestown.

Scheduled to be held as a night game at the Littlestown Memorial field, starting at 8 p.m. August 22, the All-Star tilt will pit the four teams from Pennsylvania, Fairfield, Littlestown, McSherrytown and Cashtown against the four teams from Maryland, Taneytown, Thurmont, Westminster and Emmitsburg.

The outstanding players from the various teams will make up the all-star squads.

Dr. Luther D. Beagle, Emmitsburg, president of the league, named Clyde McLaughlin, manager of the Fairfield team and Manny Wildasin, manager of the Taneytown squad, as the managers for the two all-star squads. The Fairfield and Taneytown teams are currently tied for first place in the league.

Managers of the other six teams in the league will serve as coaches. Each team will furnish a pitcher and catcher and three additional players for the all-star tilt.

Reformed church and the alley going by the Hanover shoe factory. These alleys were ordered repaired. He said conditions around the square were very unsightly and needed cleaning up. Council took action to place two trash cans around the square and have the area swept each week and the rubbish hauled away by Mr. Wierman.

Several bad pavement conditions were noted and one particular condition which recently caused $75 damage to bus tires. It was pointed out that it was the property owners' responsibility to keep pavements in good condition.

Two requests from the Emmitsburg fire company were received. A special contribution of $600 was granted to be Vigilant Hose company for the new fire truck and the firemen were given use of one parking space on West Main street near the fire house for the ambulance in an emergency.

A request for use of a parking space by private citizens for $15 a year was rejected. The burgess reported that he is in communication with the engineer of the department of health, and that plans were being worked out for the installation of a chloride machine at the disposal plant to cost approximately $2,000.00. A communication from the State road commission requesting a town ordinance for restricted parking on North and South Seton avenue was acted upon. Stopping, but no parking, will be permitted on either side of Seton avenue for a distance of several hundred yards from the square if and when the proposed restricted parking is put into effect.

Plan Church Festival
Altar flowers were placed in Elias Evangelical Lutheran church Sunday by Dr. and Mrs. Robert Hampson in memory of Dr. Hampson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hampson.

The Emmitsburg Community Old Home Week chorus met for the second rehearsal Monday night at the high school. The attendance was above that of the opening rehearsal.

Elias Evangelical Lutheran church will hold a festival with band concert by the Blue and Gray band of Gettysburg on the church lawn Saturday evening, August 25. Suppers will be served starting at 4 p.m.

Today's Talk
By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

THE JOY OF CREATION
Nothing so lifts one's mind and stimulates one's body as to create something. Many years ago, I was shown through the old laboratory, or work shop, of Thomas A. Edison, by the last living assistant of his. It was inspiring to listen to the talk of this loyal helper of the great inventor and note the scores of inventions that kept streaming from the mind of this remarkable man. One reason for his advanced age was that he got so much joy out of all his creations.

I have what I have always wanted — a carpenter shop of my own! For years at my island retreat, an old ice house remained vacant and one day I conceived the idea of turning it into a carpenter shop, for I always got fun out of good tools. So the conversion was made at very small expense and now I get the joy of creation as I make simple things, or make repairs about my place.

When you make things yourself you pay more attention to the things that other people make, and so grow more attentive and appreciative. When you look at a fine piece of furniture, made from some beautiful wood that has been long aged, or a rare rug that has been woven by those of great skill and lovers of color, you can almost feel the joy it must have been to these creators as they fashioned their thoughts and workmanship into something permanent.

You can see this sense of joy even in the child as it sets up its blocks, or contrives with some toy, for there is nothing more natural in this world than the desire to create something. It is this urge that has given to us all the progress we have and which keeps driving us on to newer exploits.

The things people make with their own hands mean so much more than the things made by machinery. A machine can't breathe love, as a human being can. Lovers of fine literature place a high price upon the original manuscript of a writer, because it's the thing the writer touched, worked over, perhaps sweat bled to create. Or perhaps no one paid any attention to the published book until people came to appreciate its worth and then the manuscript meant more than ever.

How precious are the books of Mary Webb, but how neglected she was in life. You can't read her books without realizing her joy of creating great literature. Especially did she love all outdoors, and wrote as a genius about it.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Just Trees."

PARTY
A few friends in a happy mood,
The joy of laughter and of song,
A table richly laid with food,
And nothing in the world is wrong.

An evening (oh, how soon it ends!)
To all that's pleasant dedicate.
A little gathering of friends
With none to fear and naught to hate.

The quarrels that divide mankind,
Forgotten for a few brief hours,
When everything is left behind
That frets and spoils this world of ours.

A party! Would that more could be
Than those we manage now and then;
That, as we love our friends, so we Could learn to love our fellowmen.

FBI CATCHES 5 MORE REDS

(By The Associated Press)
The FBI snared another batch of alleged American Communists yesterday, promised more arrests, but said there would be "no hysteria, no mass raids, no roundup of thousands."

The latest roundup netted five more Communist leaders in New York, Baltimore and Cleveland. A sixth person, described by the FBI as an attorney for the Red party, was arrested in Baltimore.

All six were charged with plotting to advocate violent overthrow of the U. S. government. This same accusation was leveled against 11 convicted top-rung Communist leaders and 34 more accused lesser Reds now awaiting trial.

Federal agents currently are pressing a hunt for four of the convicted and four of the other defendants. Those arrested early today and yesterday were: In Baltimore — George A. Meyers, 38, chairman and organizer in the party's District 4 (Baltimore) headquarters; Roy Wood, 36, Washington, D. C., party chairman; and the attorney, Maurice Louis Braverman, 35, of Baltimore; in Cleveland — Regina Frankfeld, 41, of Cleveland, a former organizer in Baltimore; in New York — Dorothy Rose Blumberg, 47, of Brooklyn, former treasurer of the party's 4th district, and Philip Frankfeld, 44, party organizer in Cleveland, apprehended as he boarded a plane for the Ohio city.

Harrisburg, Aug. 8 (AP)—Legalized horse race betting would increase the state's tax load rather than decrease it, a church group argued today. The Lord's Day Alliance, through its general secretary, made the contention in a prepared report on gambling in Pennsylvania.

The Rev. Melvin F. Forney said there is no justification for the contention by proponents of legalization that the tax load would be lightened. "On the contrary the average per capita tax of the combined states which legalize horse racing and pari-mutuel betting is nearly 20 per cent higher than the combined average per capita tax of the states which forbid this form of gambling," Rev. Forney's report said.

Upper End Farm And Business News

GOOD YIELD IN FISH POSSIBLE IN FARM PONDS

By proper fertilizing good farm ponds can be made to produce as much as 200 pounds of fish per acre each year, Richard Long, engineer with the Adams County Soil Conservation service, said as he gave information on proper fertilizing practices for best result with the increasingly numerous farm ponds.

"Carrying capacity of water depends upon its fertility. Most natural waters have a rather low carrying capacity, from 20 to 100 pounds per acre being normal range," Mr. Long said.

"By fertilizing, the yield can be increased and maintained. In good ponds a yield of 200 pounds of fish per acre can be expected. This represents a carrying capacity of about 400 pounds since half the weight of fish are too small to be caught."

Recommended Formula
"The recommended formula for fertilizing fish ponds is 8-8-4. If already-mixed goods is not available, this can be made up by mixing 50 pounds of nitrate of soda (or 40 pounds of sulphate of ammonia in hard water), 40 pounds of 20 percent superphosphate, 8 pounds of 50 percent of nitrate of potash and 12 pounds of finely-ground limestone. The limestone is used as a filler but is a needed chemical in soft water. In hard water ponds use sand in place of the limestone.

"One hundred pounds 3-12-6 plus 55 pounds nitrate of soda make 155 pounds of 8-8-4 fertilizer. In the year the fish are stocked, the first application of fertilizer should be made at or a few days before the time of stocking. In subsequent years, the first application should be made as soon as the plant growth starts in the spring (when the pasture begins to look greener). Additional applications are made according to a turbidity (color of the water) test. If the water has not colored up with growth of plankton organisms after one week, make another treatment. Repeat at weekly intervals until the water is green or brownish green, dark enough so that a light object disappears one foot beneath the water's surface. An easy way of checking is to immerse your forearm with hand held at a right angle. If your hand disappears before your elbow goes under, the turbidity is all right."

Feeds Plankton And Fish
"Distribute the fertilizer from shore by use of spading shovel and sling it out as far as possible. If the pond is too large, use a boat. In ponds which have large flow of water, say two or three-inch pipe capacity, use manure. "Four hundred pounds of fresh sheep or chicken manure, plus 20 pounds of 20 percent superphosphate or 600 pounds of fresh cow or horse manure, plus 40 pounds of 20 percent superphosphate may be placed in small piles around the pond in quiet water.

"This is how the fertilizer helps to increase fish production: The fertilizer is consumed by the plankton which consists of microscopic plants and animals that live free floating in the water. This plankton provides food for insect larvae, small crustaceans and small fish which in turn furnish food for the larger fish."

No Aquatic Growth
"The problem of aquatic growth in a farm pond can be reduced to nil by proper fertilization. All plant growth needs sunlight. By keeping water colored up through fertilization, the plants cannot secure the benefits of sunlight.

"Ponds are stocked at the ratio of 100 pounds of large-mouth bass to 1,000 bluegills. The bluegills feed largely on plankton, crustaceans, insects and some small fish. Bass feed largely on the small bluegills and their own young. In a well cared for pond, the year after stocking the bluegills, they should be of pan size. Bass that have been stocked for three years have reached 15 to 20 inches."

Juneau, Alaska, Aug. 8 (AP)—Coast guard spokesmen said today they doubted there was any connection between a leg bone found near Yakutat Monday and the Korean airlift transport plane missing since July 21 with 38 aboard.

Hunters who inspected the bone said it looked like the hind leg of a grizzly bear and called it too large for a human leg. But they added hastily they did not want to contradict the doctors.

New Rocket Record Set At 135 Miles

White Sands, N. M., Aug. 8 (AP)— Jubilant rocket experts, flushed with yesterday's soaring success, talked today of new assaults on the rocket altitude record. They sent the seventh American viking rocket ever fired swooshing 135 miles up into a hazy New Mexico sky yesterday for a new world record.

Capt. A. E. Ehlinger, navy skipper

at White Sands, summed up their feelings. "Hot damn!" he said as he hurried into the dugout near the launching platform from the vantage point some three miles distant where he had been with Army Secretary Frank Pace, Jr., and other military officials. "I just couldn't stand it any longer, I just couldn't stand it any longer, I just couldn't stand it any longer," he said.

Milton Rosen, head of the rocket project for the naval research laboratory, put it this way: "We've worked a long time for this and we're awfully happy. But we're never satisfied with any altitude."

POSTPONE GAME
FOR OLD TIMERS

Donald Z. Mann, president, was in charge at the semi-monthly meeting of the Littlestown Junior Chamber of Commerce Monday evening at Schottie's hotel, South Queen street. The group decided to postpone the Old Timers' baseball game from August 17 to Friday, August 31. The game will be played on Littlestown Memorial field between two Old Timers' teams, consisting of former members of the local town team. The game, which is being sponsored by the Jaycees, is for the benefit of the community betterment fund.

The Hanover Jaycees and the local organization will play a softball game on Friday, August 24, at 6:30 p.m., on the diamond on the community playground. The next August meeting will be held in the form of a stag party on Friday, August 17, at Dick's dam. The men will meet at 6 o'clock that evening at the home of L. Robert Snyder, East King street. A picnic lunch will be enjoyed, with J. Robert Self acting as chairman of the refreshment committee.

Fire Auxiliary Busy
The Auxiliary to the Alpha Fire company No. 1 will conduct a bazaar table at the carnival being held by the fire company on Friday and Saturday nights. The organization is in charge of the refreshment stand at the carnival each evening throughout this week. Members of the auxiliary are asked to contribute homemade cakes for sale at the stand on Friday and Saturday evenings, as well as hand work and other articles for the bazaar table. If the members can not bring their contributions to the community playground where the affair is being held, they should call the secretary, Mrs. George W. Strick, Lumber street, and she will arrange to have the articles collected.

Due to the inclement weather the Black Hills caravan did not entertain at the fire company carnival on Tuesday evening. During the early part of the evening refreshments were on sale, games were played and rides were conducted for the children. This evening entertainment will be provided by Cody and Cody, knife throwing, whip cracking and musical team. On Thursday evening Shorty and Sally Fincher and their Young'uns will be featured with western music.

Plan Anniversary
The forty-first anniversary of the Hoffman orphanage, Littlestown R. 1, will be celebrated on Thursday, August 30, at which time special programs will be conducted. The anniversary service will be held at 2 o'clock that afternoon in the Church of the Good Shepherd, on the orphanage campus. The Rev. Gottlieb Siegenthaler of Baltimore, will be the guest speaker for the service. The Rev. Arthur E. Leeming is the superintendent of the Reformed church orphanage.

Sgt. John Hobart Myers, this place, was recently received in the membership of Redeemer's Evangelical and Reformed church, through the rite of confirmation. Sgt. Myers has recently returned to the States from Japan, where he was stationed for the past two years with the U. S. Army of occupation. The August meeting of the Mason and Dixon Memorial Post No. 6954, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Auxiliary will be held on Thursday evening at 8 o'clock, at the post home, West King street.

Foundry Outing Held
Mrs. Katherine Hull, Park avenue, will be hostess to the Alta Hummer Missionary society of St. John's Lutheran church, for the regular monthly meeting on Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. The leader for the August meeting will be Mrs. Elmo Jones.

Ocker-Snyder Post No. 321, American Legion, will not hold its regular meeting on Thursday evening due to the state Legion convention now being held in Pittsburgh, and also due to the Alpha Fire company carnival being conducted every evening this week.

Two hundred employees and their families were in attendance at the annual Family Day outing held by the Foundry and Hardware company, Inc., on Saturday afternoon at Fuller Lake, near Pine Grove Furnace. Picnic style fried chicken dinners were served by Bankert's restaurant. Games were played, swimming was included in the recreation and a social period was enjoyed.

Fishing is Iceland's principal industry.

Harrisburg, Aug. 8 (AP)—A controversial measure requiring all public workers to take anti-Communist oaths will get a public hearing by a House committee next week. Chairman Ivan Watkins (R-Schuylkill) of the House state government committee fixed a hearing for next Tuesday on the hotly-disputed measure.

Watkins said the committee would be glad to hear testimony from anyone who cared to appear. The bill has been tied up in his committee since passing the Senate last March 28.

Iceland pastures hundreds of thousands of sheep and cattle, according to the National Geographic society.

M'CARRAN AND SENATORS BUSY ON COMMUNISM

By JAMES MARLOW
Washington, (AP)—Senator McCarran and his fellow-senators on the judiciary committee have shown much eagerness in digging into communism themselves.

But they have shown a tardiness in putting into motion some other government machinery for working the same field, including an examination of our whole loyalty and security program.

McCarran, a Nevada Democrat but not friendly with President Truman, is chairman of the very important judiciary committee whose members this year created a subcommittee of this year to look into communism.

It's a twin of the House un-American activities committee.

It's working now on possible Communist links in the State Department. But last year McCarran called chief sponsor of a measure—called the subversive activities control act—to flush members of the Communist party into the open.

That act called for Mr. Truman to appoint a five-man board to decide whether the Communist party could operate with full blessing of the law, it had to be approved by the full Senate, a step which first needed approval by McCarran's committee.

Thus McCarran's group had in effect life and death power over any board appointed by the President. Although Mr. Truman appointed the board last October, the judiciary committee kept the board in suspense until last week when it finally approved three of the five board members. It hasn't decided on the fourth. The fifth had resigned because of illness.

Two Criticisms

The government's loyalty and security program—to get rid of disloyal government workers and those who can't be trusted with secrets for one reason or another—has been criticized on two main counts: It wasn't tough enough; and it didn't give enough protection to the rights of individuals.

Last January Mr. Truman appointed a commission of nine prominent men, all outsiders, headed by Fleet Admiral Chester W. Nimitz, to examine the whole loyalty-security program to see how it's doing and how it could be done better. This was the best chance the country has had for an impartial study of the whole controversial issue.

There was a slight hitch, which could be cleared up by McCarran's committee before the commission, committee of businessmen and law-makers, could buckle down to work.

Passed A Special Law
The commission members, because of the nature of their work, regularly have dealings with government agencies, like thousands of other American businessmen. They'd draw some pay from the government for their work on the commission. But this wouldn't be full-time. And meanwhile they'd want to do their regular business with the agencies.

But there's a law, called the "conflict of interest" law, which forbids anyone to draw government pay while doing business with the government or representing outside interests before federal agencies.

From time to time when it's necessary to get prominent men to come in and do a special job for the government—men who'd otherwise be barred because of the conflict of interest law—Congress has passed a special law just for them.

Senate Didn't Act

This was done, for example, in the case of the men called in to work with former President Hoover on reorganization of the government and again for men serving on the loyalty review board which has final say on people fired for communism from government jobs.

Members of the Nimitz commission wanted the same special law passed for them, since otherwise they couldn't make the sacrifice required to serve on the commission. The House approved a measure to clear them.

But the Senate didn't act. The McCarran committee refused to go along. In spite of exceptions made in the past McCarran told reporters, "the law should be enforced for all." The Nimitz commission gave up and quit.
